AT TRADES HALL

From heritage to timeless beauty.

● HISTORY OF TRADES HALL

Trades Hall, located in Glasgow's Merchant City, is a breathtakingly beautiful historic venue that serves as an exquisite backdrop for any occasion. Constructed in 1794, it is the perfect choice for both intimate and large scale weddings and celebrations (both catered and non-catered), accommodating up to 250 guests and offering an unparalleled experience.

Being the proud home of The Trades House of Glasgow, which has been serving as a registered charity (SC040548) since its establishment in 1605, it constantly provides invaluable support to the local community. A portion of the proceeds generated from weddings held at this venue is donated towards charitable causes.

● WELCOME TO TRADES HALL

Located in Glasgow's Merchant City, Trades Hall is a stunningly beautiful historic venue that provides the perfect backdrop for any event. Completed in 1794, it is an ideal location for both intimate and large weddings and celebrations, accommodating up to 250 guests and offering something truly unique.

This enchanting and picturesque venue has recently undergone refurbishment with state-of-the-art air conditioning and architectural lighting to ensure maximum comfort for you and your guests.

There are five distinct function rooms available for individual or combined hire, allowing exclusive use of the entire building. The Grand Hall, adorned with baroque chandeliers and late Victorian decor, is the crown jewel of Trades Hall.

Where elegance meets forever.

● WEDDINGS AT TRADES HALL

At Trades Hall, our commitment is to deliver an extraordinary experience. We have partnered with renowned caterers who will work closely with you to ensure that your special day is memorable and provide a selection of culinary options for your celebration.

Four legged friends are all welcome.

● EVERYONE'S INVITED!

We understand that your special day would not be the same without your furry friends. That's why we warmly welcome pets, appreciating them as special members of your family.

We believe that celebrating your special occasion should include all your loved ones, whether they have two legs or four!

"ALL THE STAFF (ESPECIALLY JUDY, WILLIE AND PAUL) WERE VERY FRIENDLY, PROFESSIONAL AND COULDN'T DO ENOUGH TO HELP MAKE OUR DAY AN AMAZING SPECTACLE."
